

CALL FOR PAPERS | SOLICITING YOUR CONTRIBUTION FOR THE NEXT ISSUE OF ICEB

Dear Friend,

Greetings from Udayan Care!

Institutionalised Children: Explorations and Beyond (ICEB), is a peer-reviewed journal on issues of Alternative Care for Children with a focus on South Asia. ICEB serves as an excellent platform for sharing academic research papers and information, recent research reports/studies and events on issues of children living in Alternative Care, their developmental issues and work done around social work, psychology, mental health, trauma informed Care and related issues. The Journal, a flagship initiative of Udayan Care, since 2014, is a biannual publication, in English, scheduled for release in March and September of each year. (ISSN: 2349-3003, online ISSN No: 2349-3011).

Every issue of ICEB includes the following features:

- Original research articles
- Interviews with prominent personalities in the area of child and youth care
- Case studies, Brief communications, upcoming events
- Book and Movie reviews
- Critical reviews, letters to the editor, conference proceedings, surveys, opinions

Our latest issue of ICEB has been released in September 2017 and is the first special edition that focuses on issues of “depression in children living in Alternative Care”.

Published in India, ICEB has a South Asian outlook. We are always anxiously looking for contributors from the region - practitioners, managers, researchers, students and young people with experience in child and youth care settings. We welcome a real variety of articles and papers on all topics related to Alternative Care for Children and Young Persons.

We are now in the process of releasing our next issue by March 2018. Yet again, this is a special edition focused on “Trends in Alternative Care and Family Strengthening for Children in South Asia”. This issue will be released at our forthcoming 3rd Biennial International Conference on Alternative Care and Family Strengthening for Children in South Asia, details of which can be seen at: www.bicon.udayancare.org

We look forward to receiving your manuscript by 30th November 2017 so that it can be peer reviewed and be included in our upcoming issue. The editorial board of ICEB strongly believes that your contribution will enhance our readership base and bring. We prefer including contributions that cover issues of alternative care in South Asia but we also have an international section that showcases positive trends and care models from other parts of the world.

Kindly submit the manuscript through an attached email at iceb@udayancare.org. We request you to kindly acknowledge and respond to this invitation at the earliest.

In Anticipation

Monisha C. Nayar-Akhtar, Ph.D.

Editor – in Chief
